

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

A pure, healthful, Cream of Tartar Baking Powder

When buying an article of food you are entitled to know exactly what you are buying—its quality and ingredients.

If this information is refused don't buy it.

Some of the low grade baking powders are advertised, but the ingredients of the powders are scrupulously concealed.

A housekeeper would not use a baking powder containing alum if she knew it.

It is well when buying to examine the label on the can. Unless it shows the ingredient cream of tartar, don't buy it.

Dr. Price's baking powder is absolutely free from alum.

NO DEADLY WEAPONS

SHALL BE CARRIED

Bingham, Dec. 4.—Authorities here are determined to stop the practice of carrying deadly weapons by residents of the mining camp. Two heavy sentences were imposed for such offenses today by Justice of the Peace E. E. Dudley, who declared that offenders would be vigorously handled in the future in order to end a practice which results in frequent brawls of a serious nature.

Tom Corrello, the young Mexican arrested at the time Lopez shot Juan Valdez, was sentenced to five months in the county jail on a charge of having exhibited a deadly weapon in a threatening manner during a recent quarrel with M. J. Taylor. Judge Dudley also sentenced Buster, a man arrested by Policeman G. E. Wilson and Daniel Heaston. Both men were taken to the county jail in Salt Lake today.

JOINS POSSE TO SEEK

BROTHER'S MURDERER

Bingham, Dec. 5.—At daylight this morning G. W. Hulsey, brother of J. Douglas Hulsey, who was killed last Saturday by Lopez, the bandit, will go up the hill to help avenge the death of his brother. Hulsey is a former sheriff of Colorado and is experienced in handling desperate criminals.

When it was announced last night that the mine would be opened today, G. W. Hulsey immediately volunteered of his services. His offer was accepted and he will go up the hill before dawn this morning.

Should a fight come with the Mexican, he hopes to be in the front to have an opportunity of capturing the murderous slayer of his eldest brother.

G. W. Hulsey, like his dead brother, is an experienced rifle shot and has had much out of doors experience. Many of his characteristics are almost identical with those of the victim last Saturday, who was so well liked in Bingham.

SUCCESSFUL BEET SEASON

Pocatello, Idaho, Dec. 4.—The beet crop between this place and Blackfoot will be delivered to the sugar company by Saturday of this week. The hauling near Idaho Falls and Sugar City was finished last week. The crop this year was the best in the history of this part of the state, and it will be necessary for the sugar plants to run until after the first of the year to care for the beets of this season. It is also reported that the beets of this year were higher in sugar content than those of former years.

ELECTRIC COMPANY AT WORK

Pocatello, Idaho, Dec. 4.—The Beaver River Power company has increased the force of men at work excavating for the laying of conduits for the establishment of its lighting system in Pocatello. All the wires of the company will be underground. This will be the first company to compete with the Southern Idaho Water Power company in this section.

PRES. JOS. F. SMITH IN PHOENIX ARIZONA

Phoenix, Ariz., Dec. 4.—Joseph F. Smith, head of the Mormon church, arrived here today from Salt Lake City to officiate at the dedication of two Mormon chapels in this section. He visited Governor Hunt today and will return to Salt Lake next Saturday.

GRAY-BISHOP MARRIAGE

Pocatello, Idaho, Dec. 4.—William Gray and Mrs. Maude Bishop, both of Darlington, were united in marriage here yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Cappell, the Rev. Arthur Saunders officiating. The contracting parties are well known in the Lost River section, where they will make their home.

SUING FOR DIVORCE

Provo, Dec. 4.—Nellie Brown of Provo has begun suit for divorce against Hugh Brown on the ground of failure to provide. Plaintiff asks for the custody of a minor child and for $25 a month alimony. The parties were married in this city November 27, 1912.

OUTLOOK NOT BRIGHT

FOR SPECIAL SESSION

Boise, Idaho, Dec. 4.—Opposition that has developed in many parts of the state will, it is now believed here, block the proposed call for a session extraordinary of the Idaho legislature urged upon Governor Haines to correct faulty legislation in the drain for Carey act land matters, as well as age act and to pass needed legislation as to amend the revenue laws and take up such other legislation it is claimed should be given legislative attention. Prospects were bright for the call at one time. However, since then the state's chief executive is said to have heard from advisers in many parts of the state who have come flattery out as opposed to an extra session. The newspapers of the state have also taken up the matter for the issuance of the call and in practically every instance they have severely criticized consideration of it, principally on the grounds that the taxes in this state are now high and to add an additional $20,000 or $40,000, which a legislative session would cost, would only add to the burden and would not meet with the approval of the people. It is also claimed in opposition to the proposed call that there is no legislation that cannot wait at least another year.

Governor Haines has not given out an official statement as to what his attitude is with reference to the proposed extra session. That he has been in conference with many of the party leaders and with members of the legislature is well known. From them it is learned that the governor would favor the extra session call if assured that the legislation needed would be acted upon, and none other and the people at large would sanction the expense.

CANAL WORK STOPPED.

Brigham City, Dec. 4.—Work has been stopped on the Hammond canal for the winter on account of the bad weather of the past few days. The company will devote all its time during the winter months to the installation of steel headgates along the twenty or more miles of its canal, to take the place of the old wooden headgates originally installed.

F. E. McGurran of Salt Lake, president of the Hammond canal, was in Brigham early in the week and while here gave out the information that the directors of the company at their last meeting decided on a raise in the price of water, to take effect on April 1, 1914. After that time the price will be $75 an acre. Many improvements will be made on the ditches of the canal system during the next few years, and the entire proceeds from the sale of water will be used in improvements on the various ditches of the water system. Mr. McGurran expects to spend a few days of next week in this county, and will meet with the property owners of Honeyville and Deweyville in regard to the needs of water users in those towns.

MAN'S INHUMANITY.

Medical men have been much interested in the fact that a large number of horses in Chicago have been deliberately made blind to make them more easily managed. The report of agents of the Anti-Cruelty society whose curiosity was aroused by the docility of young and apparently normal animals, shows this to be the case. Warrants were properly asked for horse dealers accused of mutilations.

These horses were blinded by men, who guarantee to purchasers that they will not shy and need no blinders. A needle is jabbed through each eye. The wound is scarcely noticeable, but a horse so treated never sees again. Peddlers in particular desire horses which are quiet and the blinding of the animals has been put on a commercial basis. A man who physicians are particularly interested in this discovery made in Chicago is because every now and then a suspicious epidemic of eye diseases breaks out among horses. The pus and matter from their eyes is highly infectious and teems with bacteria that may infect men. A man by the name of Riggs, fond of horses, recently died at Baltimore from a mysterious affection, the cause and cure of which is absolutely unknown to pathologists. It has been suggested that in Baltimore and elsewhere instead of puncturing the eyeballs of horses, the unscrupulous dealers inoculate the pus from the eyes of one horse to the eyes of other animals. Thus they become blind seemingly "by contracting" a disease in a natural manner.—Dr. L. K. Hirschberg, Johns Hopkins University.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS

BREAKS UP A DINNER

Washington, D. C., Dec. 4.—While Senator Walsh of Montana was making a speech this evening at a dinner given by Senator Chamberlain of Oregon to senators and representatives and delegates to the Rivers and Harbors congress from the states of Montana, Oregon, Idaho, Washington and Nevada and the secretaries of war and interior, the sergeant-at-arms of the United States senate and all of the senators were obliged to accompany him to the capital to make up a quorum of the senate.

In his speech Senator Walsh referred to the inadequacy of the existing coal land laws and the necessity for their revision. In order that the necessities of the west may be properly developed, he urged that the recommendations of President Wilson in regard to opening up Alaska be adopted by congress and laws framed by which the coal and other resources found there may be utilized.

The senators who were taken from the feast by the officer of the senate were Chamberlain and Lane, Oregon; Newlands and Pittman, Nevada; Walsh and Myers, Montana; Brady, Idaho; Ransdell, Louisiana, and Poin-dexter, Washington.

Before the dinner party senators were broken up by the abduction of the senators, Secretary Lane of the interior department and Secretary Garrison of the war department made speeches, expressing their interest in the west and its development.

JACKLING IS BACK

FROM COAST TRIP

Salt Lake, Dec. 5.—"My yacht started out again at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon from Seattle for San Francisco. I hope nobody on board will have a cold this time," said Colonel D. C. Jackling last night. Colonel Jackling arrived here yesterday from San Francisco. He was still suffering somewhat from the cold which was reported to be pneumonia by a wireless from his yacht last week. However, the copper magnate said it was greatly improved and that as soon as he recovered his voice, which is somewhat hoarse, he would be well again.

Colonel Jackling told of the severe test which his new boat, "The Cyprus," received when it started out from Seattle. He said that the weather encountered was the roughest experienced off that coast in years. He said that his yacht stood it splendidly and that he was thoroughly satisfied with its performance.

Colonel Jackling attributed the rumor that he was suffering from pneumonia to confusion in the wireless transmission, as one of his friends on board had wired that Mr. Jackling was suffering from a severe cold. Mr. Jackling said it was not only due to his cold that the boat returned to Seattle instead of continuing on to San Francisco, as planned, but that he had to keep business engagements in San Francisco which he could not have kept had he tried to negotiate the stormy trip on the Pacific. Mr. Jackling's boat will remain in San Francisco until he goes there, when he will make another trip off the coast of California.

CRITIC SELECTS AN ALL-AMERICAN TEAM

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 5.—An "All-American" football team composed of men who have achieved fame as professional baseball players has been selected by a local critic. Every man on the team played football, and some of them were stars. Following is the eleven:

Lord, Colby, right end.
Birmingham, Cornhill, right tackle.
Johnson, Carlisle, right guard.
Overall, California, center.
Brickley, Everett, left end.
Huggins, Cincinnati, quarterback.
Thorpe, Carlisle, right half.
Mathewson, Bucknell, fullback.
Mathewson was considered a star on the gridiron and to him, Capren and Thorpe, all good punters, would be given the kicking duties. The ends selected were halves at school. Harry Lord having been considered the greatest in the position that Colby ever saw.

Brickley is on the Athletics' payroll and is a brother of Harvard's famous pool kicker, Chas. Johnson, of the Reds was a valued member of Coach Warner's squad a few years ago.

Overall not only was a good center at California—one of the best on the coast when the old game was played—but also was an efficient backfield man. Huggins' work at running back punts and in open field tackling made him a famous quarter at the University of Cincinnati.

Birmingham was an active member of the Cornell team at one time, and Reubach was an aggressive line-man for Notre Dame.

Hobitzell, who helped coach the eleven at his alma mater this fall, was noted for his capacity for going through and tackling runners behind the line.

IMPORTED EGGS ARE UNDERSELLING U. S.

New York, Dec. 5.—Eggs imported from Europe are being sold cheaper in this city than eggs laid in the United States, according to evidence said to have been obtained here today by an agent of the United States department of justice. The evidence covering both fresh and cold storage eggs, will be used, it is understood, by Attorney General James C. McReynolds as an illustration of the grip of cold storage speculators are alleged to have on the egg markets of New York and other big consuming centers.

More than 6000 cases of European eggs have arrived in this port in the last week. The importations have been made possible by the new tariff.

MILITANTS DESTROY SCOTCH

MANSION

Glasgow, Scotland, Dec. 5.—Fire today destroyed Melly House, one of the finest mansions at Wemyss bay, a favorite outlying suburb of Glasgow. The fire was the work of an arson squad of militant suffragettes and was apparently set in revenge for the government's arrest of Mrs. Pankhurst yesterday.

SUIT TO RECOVER BAGGAGE LOSS

Woman Takes Case Against
Boston and Maine to Supreme Court.

Washington, Dec. 5.—The right of the ordinary interstate traveler to recover the full value of baggage lost, hinges on the fight of Mrs. Katherine Hooker of Los Angeles to have the supreme court require the Boston and Maine railroad to compensate her for $2000 of finery lost in a fire at Sunapee Lake station in New Hampshire in 1908.

The railroad contends that it transported the baggage at a particular rate on condition that the value did not exceed $100 and that it would have charged a higher rate had it known that Mrs. Hooker's trunks contained more valuable belongings. It points to recent decisions of the supreme court that the Hepburn rate law sanctions the basing of freight and express rates on value and argues that the law sanctions the basing of baggage charges on value. Mrs. Hooker, through her attorneys, takes the position that baggage is not charged for in the sale of tickets for transportation and hence the Hepburn rate law does not govern rights growing out of baggage, but the law of each state. Under Massachusetts law, where Mrs. Hooker's journey began, she was allowed to recover $2000 on the ground that the limitation on her right to recover more than $100 was against public policy.

INTERNATIONAL COURT

A medicine for Throat and Lung Troubles which have been thoroughly tested for many years, and which have been instrumental in restoring complete health to a large number of sufferers, should be thoroughly investigated by everyone. While no undue claims are made for it, nor any guarantee that its use will restore health, Eckman's Alternative has been given the full credit in saving lives in many cases. Read this case:

Wilmington, Del.
"Gentlemen: In January, 1908, I was taken with hemorrhages of the lungs. My physician, one of the leading practitioners of Wilmington, Del., said that it was lung trouble. I took eggs and milk in quantities, but I got very weak. Mr. C. A. Lippincott, of Lippincott & Co., Department Store, 206 to 314 Market street, Wilmington, Del., recommended me Eckman's Alternative that had done great good, and upon his suggestion I began taking it at once. This was about June, 1908. I continued faithfully using no other remedy, and finally noticed the clearing of my lungs. I now have no trouble with my lungs. I firmly believe Eckman's Alternative saved my life."
(affidavit) JAMES SQUIRES.
